Goodbye Lipo, Hello Ultrashape!

Ultrashape—a Liposuction-free, non-invasive body contouring treatment—allows you to effectively reshape your body with less pain, faster, and with less downtime than traditional liposuction. Ultrashape is a non-invasive body contouring treatment that uses a combination of laser and ultrasound technology to break down fat cells, which are then naturally eliminated from the body.

A small amount of bruising is possible with ultrashape, but it is typically mild and goes away quickly. There is no downtime, so you can return to your normal activities immediately. The results are visible immediately, and you can see the results of your treatment as early as 24 hours.

San Miguel, Toyota win cases vs own workers

By Lella S. Salazar

MANILA (Inquirer Staff Report)—San Miguel and Toyota have won their cases against the National Labor Relations Commission (NLRC) in the Supreme Court.

The San Miguel case, involving the dismissal of 10 workers, was decided in favor of the company. The NLRC had ruled in favor of the workers, but the Supreme Court reversed the decision.

The Toyota case, involving the dismissal of 10 workers, was also decided in favor of the company. The NLRC had ruled in favor of the workers, but the Supreme Court reversed the decision.

The Supreme Court's decision in both cases was a significant victory for the companies, as it allowed them to dismiss the workers without further legal action.

UN report: RP strategy to blame for killings

By Michael Lee-Lee

MANILA, Oct. 11 — A United Nations report released today says the Philippine government's strategy in dealing with the communist insurgency is to blame for the deaths of thousands of people.

The report, titled "Human Rights in the Philippines: A Report of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights," says that the government's policy of "zero tolerance" towards the communist insurgency has led to the deaths of thousands of people, including civilians.

The report also says that the government's policy of "zero tolerance" has led to the deaths of thousands of people, including civilians.

First lady Kirchner elected Argentina president

BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 15 (AP) — Cristina Kirchner, first lady of Argentina, was elected president of the country in a runoff election Sunday, defeating her husband, incumbent President Néstor Kirchner, and a coalition of opposition parties.

The 47-year-old first lady, who served as first lady from 2003 to 2007, won 52 percent of the vote in the runoff election, which was held after a first round on Oct. 28. She was elected as the leader of the Justicialist Party, a center-right party that has been in power since 2003.

Her husband, Néstor Kirchner, who served as president from 2003 to 2007, finished second with 47 percent of the vote. He was elected as the leader of the Radical Civic Union, a center-left party that has been in opposition since 2003.

The election was held in a country that has been plagued by economic problems, including high unemployment and inflation. The Kirchners' administration was criticized for its handling of the economy and its policies on human rights.

Cristina Kirchner's victory was seen as a surprise, as she was not expected to win in the runoff election. Her campaign focused on economic recovery and social justice.

Romantic bakers sent home for shoplifting

Two bakers from a local bakery were sent home from work after being caught shoplifting from their own store. The bakers, who were in their late 20s, were caught by a security guard while they were in the back of the store. The guard found them with a large bag of flour and a box of baking powder. The bakers were charged with theft and are currently in jail.

The diagram illustrates the experimental setup for studying the effect of solution concentration on reaction rate. It shows a reaction vessel with a stirrer and a thermometer. The reaction is initiated by adding a catalyst, and the rate is measured by the change in reactant concentration over time. The diagram is labeled with 'd' and 'L' and includes a scale bar.
